The Carnival.

The Monumental Carnival Co., has been playing in this city all week, and the tents, etc., are pitched all over the Public Square and many side streets. The shows are all good and the attractions well worth the price of admission. The rain has been a great drawback, coming in torrents nearly every afternoon and night, but business has been fairly good notwithstanding this interference. Indications now point to large crowds today and tomorrow. The engagement closes Saturday night. The carnival is under auspices of the local Odd Fellows lodge.

Successful and Enjoyable.

The County Sunday School Convention held at the Methodist church Tuesday was largely attended, every school in the county having a good representation. The program was carried out without the slightest hitch, and all felt it was good to be there. Much more interest was manifested than on previous meetings, and the convention is now on a solid basis, with flattering prospects for accomplishing much good. Mr. J. N. Denny resigned as president and Mr. W. I. Williams was elected to the office. Mrs. Mattie Duncan was re-elected secretary. A delightful dinner was served.

Circus Coming.

Lancaster is to have a circus, and a good one, too. Sun Bros., are billed for Monday, the 13th, and the small boys, and older folk too, are delighted. Pete Sun, one of the proprietors, was here Saturday, and the bill posters arrived Wednesday, posting the attractive "paper" all over the county. Sun Bros. travel on the railroad now, and have a splendid show. Two bands, two elephants, a camel, cages of lions and other animals have been added to the show since its appearance here two years ago, and the public is assured of many times the worth of their money.

The Mail Service.

For the benefit of the public, we will again give the time for closing mails at the Lancaster office. Anything deposited before 7:45 at night will be sent out on No. 11, (the 8:26 p. m. train) and any mail placed in the office at any time before 4:45 a. m., will be sent out on No. 10 (the 5:14 a. m. train). The mail going out on the morning train, No. 21, (at 10:40 a. m.) is closed at 10 o'clock a. m. There is a pouch sent out on the afternoon train, but it goes straight to Richmond. There is no mail clerk on the day trains, which causes such inconvenience to the people at Paint Lick, and other points. Poor Uncle Sam is not able to pay a clerk on both trains, and we move that the hat be passed to assist the old fellow in giving the people along the Rowland Branch what they are entitled to.

Something New and Novel.

One of the most remarkable feats ever witnessed by the people of this community is that performed by Enoch who is here with the Monumental Carnival Co., this week. The statement that a man can stay under water for more than four minutes, and during that time eat, drink, smoke, and play a musical instrument, sing, write, do many acrobatic feats and many other things which are difficult to perform outside, seems to be out of reason, but Enoch does this with all ease. The writer saw Enoch timed, and can testify to all he claims. Enoch is an Englishman by birth, and has been in this country eleven years. He worked with a circus for several years, but his work is so hard that he was unable to get the required rest, while traveling every night. His work is an entirely new feature in this section, and is appreciated by the people. It is especially fine for the ladies and children and none should fail to see it. He has a large glass tank, in which all his movements are plain to the audience. The Record takes great pleasure in saying to its readers that this is one of the best ever given here, and you will make a mistake if you fail to see Enoch.

Spring Styles.
For very little boys there are belts in green apple tints, with lining of paregoric brown.

Col. F. Hubble sent The Record a neat folder announcing the opening of Rockcastle Springs for the season. This is a famous resort and has always been liberally patronized.

Will Buy Pipe Organ.

Many members of the Presbyterian church being anxious to have a pipe organ placed in the building have started a movement to buy one, and Mr. Chumbley, who is working up the plan is meeting with great encouragement. Each member will doubtless contribute liberally, as the idea is a good one.

Crab Orchard Fair.

Interior Journal:—The following are the officers and directors of the Crab Orchard Fair and Racing Association for this year: R. H. Bronaugh, president; W. D. Wallin, secretary; Directors, R. H. Bronaugh, J. W. Guest, W. D. Wallin, S. J. Tatem, W. A. Brooks, J. H. Collier, John W. Holmes, H. D. Campbell, A. C. Dunn and W. A. Beazley. The fair will be held July 27, 28 and 29.

Decorations of Graves.

The exercises by local lodge Knights of Pythias, were witnessed by a large crowd Sunday afternoon, the entire program being carried out in a most satisfactory manner. The address by Rev. Mr. Huey, of Stanford, was splendid, being to the point, full of Pythian history, due tribute to the departed brethren and timely advice to the living. The exercises were concluded at the Cemetery.

Lancaster Man "In Good."

Mr. George R. Harden, of Covington, was here this week looking after his property, and to place an ad in The Record offering it for sale. We regret very much that George will dispose of his interests here, as he has always had Lancaster's welfare at heart, and has yet, but to make his runs as mail clerk of the K. C., and give his boys better advantages, it is best that he reside in Covington, so he has bought property there. Having run with railroad men (who, by the way, are the best hearted and cleverest fellows in the world,) George naturally fell into the habit of always "figuring" on some invention. To make a long story short, we will state that he and Captain Peterson, who runs with Captain Watts, have succeeded in perfecting a means to make hens lay. It is a "sure go," and when put upon the market, will reap them a handsome wage of long green. The K. C. trains carry many crates of poultry, and Harden and Peterson have had opportunity to study the habits of old sister biddy. We are not at liberty to divulge the secret, but patents will soon be granted them look out for an over-production of eggs.

A Raw Deal.

The treatment given the Lancaster ball team at the Tournament in Nicholasville last week, was the most disgusting outrage ever forced upon a set of boys. The people of Nicholasville were exceptionally kind to the Lancaster visitors, and many did not hesitate to express their disgust at the raw deals given our boys. As soon as Lancaster played one game, the others saw they had to play ball to win, and not wishing to go up against sure defeat, all manner of underhanded tricks were resorted to. We haven't space to go into details, but will say, as an illustration, that in the second game, with the score a tie in ninth inning, some fellow suddenly discovered (?) that his team (the one he had his wad on) had made an extra score in first inning. This was denied by not only the players, but all the spectators who hadn't placed their coin on their team. There were several other just such pranks, but we can explain the whyness of the thousand by saying that notwithstanding all these "throw downs," Lancaster received six out of eight contests. Is it a wonder they were so knifed? The Nicholasville people were lovely to the Lancaster representatives, and did not hesitate to speak their opinion of the raw deals handed out by those whose decisions could not be set aside. Lancaster had the best team there, and, beyond all doubt won the pennant. The latter was won last year by the Flemington boys, and, on account of the trouble, they very wisely took it back home with them.

Excursion to St. Louis.

Lancaster Excursion Club will give an excursion on the 28th of June to the World's Fair, St. Louis. Those contemplating going will do well to get our rates, and join the party leaving here by special coaches, going direct, without change. This party will be chaperoned by Mrs. Dr. W. S. Beazley and met by Mr. Honley Bastin who has been located on World's Fair grounds for the past two months. Thus enabling all going with us to make the trip and see the Fair with the least expense.

Quarters have been secured at leading Hotel, main entrance of grounds, that no time may be lost going or coming to or from the Fair. All information and particulars of trip will be furnished any one calling at Telephone Office or writing Miss Bettie Anderson, Secretary, Lancaster, or call phone 171.

Lost, between Lancaster and Buckeye, child's light campaign jacket, brass buttons. Return to Record office, or Brown & Dickerson, Buckeye.

Father Bealer, of Nicholasville, will conduct the Catholic services, in the court house Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

A Faithful Worker.

The Carlisle Mercury contains a lengthy notice of the dedication of the Methodist church in that city and speaks many words of praise to the pastor, Rev. F. M. Hill, who has many friends in Lancaster.

Prompt Settlement.

M. D. Hughes, special agent for Aetna Life Insurance Co., has settled the $6,000, for on the life of Col. W. G. Welch, issued by his company. Settlement was made 25 days after his death and the dividends amounted to $981. This company gives the very best results and offers the most approved plans.

No Preaching Sunday.

Dr. E. H. Pearce has been called to Shelbyville to preach the class sermon for Science Hill Seminary next Sunday, and his congregation will unite with the Baptist congregation next Sunday to welcome the new minister at the latter church. Dr. Pearce preached the sermon for the class at Williamsburg Institute Wednesday evening.

Sudden Death.

Announcement of the death of Mr. Duncan Goodloe was a great shock to the community, Sunday afternoon. Mr. Goodloe, who resided on his farm at Hiattsville, was in town that day, and attended services at the Methodist church. He was in the best of spirits, and on returning home ate a hearty dinner and was as usual. Late in the afternoon he went into the yard to drive up some turkeys, and on his return lay down upon a couch. Several members of the family were in the room and they thought he was asleep. Finally some one noticed a pallor upon his face, and upon examination found that his pulse had about ceased to beat. A physician was hurriedly sent for, but in a few minutes he was dead. While Mr. Goodloe had been complaining a little for some months, yet nothing serious was expected, and his death was a great shock to all. The direct cause of his death was heart failure. Funeral services were conducted at the family residence Tuesday by Dr. E. H. Pearce, the remains being taken to Danville for interment.

The deceased was a member of the Methodist church in this city. At the breaking out of the civil war, he joined Company 1, Third Cavalry, in the Confederate service, and served the entire time fighting for the cause he believed to be right and just. His gallantry is often spoken of by comrades, and they all loved him as a brother. He was born in Madison county sixty-four years ago, spent about twenty-five years in Boyle and moved to Garrard three years ago. Every one who knew Duncan Goodloe was fond of him, and no man had more true friends. He was always in a good humor, having a pleasant word for every one, and his chief delight was to be with a crowd of friends telling pleasant stories and trying to make others happy. He is survived by a wife and three sons and two daughters, who have the deepest sympathy of the entire community in their great loss.

Odd Fellow's Carnival and Spring Festival.

The Monumental Carnival Company is replete in every thing of high character and of moral influence and will exhibit in this city the entire week of May 30th and June 4th and none need hesitate to visit it. In the several entertainments is The Old Plantation, the original negro minstrel, Little Nellie, the high diver, Si, the Indian snake eater, Lunette, the Flying Lady who flies through the air with the aid of electricity, the great Electric Theatre and the Kaola Sisters. There is also a first-class Ferris Wheel and merry-go-round with the outfit. Prof. Kelley and his marvelous Electric Theatre, which carries its own electrical plant, will be one of the leading attractions. The shows come especially well spoken of by pulpit and press, and is indeed a novel attraction. The different views presented by the kinetoscope connected with the show comprise scenes from all the leading events of the world in the past for years and will be doubtless appreciated here, especially by those seeking historical illustrations.

KENTUCKY DAY, JUNE 15th.

Old Commonwealth Promises New Standard for World's Fair Days.

The Kentucky Commission for the Louisiana Purchase Exposition has decided to postpone Kentucky Day from June 2 to June 15, and active preparations to make the day one memorable in the history of the State. World's Fair are now on. No printed invitations are to be sent into Kentucky. Every Kentuckian from no matter what walk of life is cordially invited to be present. The Kentucky Press Association will hold its annual meeting on Kentucky Day at the Kentucky Building on the Exposition grounds. This organization will meet first in Louisville on June 13, leaving that night for the World's Fair City on a special train furnished by the Henderson Route. On Tuesday, which is June 14, the editors will do a little sight seeing and in the afternoon be entertained at the Woman's Magazine Building outside the grounds. On that night they will see "The Pike."

While the programme for Kentucky Day is not complete, enough is known to announce that it will be full of interesting events. The Kentucky Building is to wear a gala attire and brass band music from the outside and a string orchestra from the inside will give to the "New Kentucky Home" an attractive tone. The editors will hold an informal session at 10 o'clock in the morning, followed by a tour of the grounds on automobiles and on the Inta-mural system, winding up at one o'clock with a luncheon probably at the east pavilion, which is being conducted by Mrs. Rorer, the famous cook-book woman. At two o'clock the regular Kentucky Day exercises will begin in Festival Hall, consisting of addresses by prominent Kentuckians. After the ceremonies a recital on the big pipe organ will take place. At night in the Kentucky Building there will be a reception from 3 to 11 o'clock. The invited guests outside of Kentucky will include the Exposition's social list, the Kentucky Society of St. Louis and the delegates to the National T. P. A. Convention. On Thursday morning the Kentucky Commission will hold a business session and on Thursday evening the Kentucky Society of St. Louis will entertain in the Kentucky Building in honor of the commission.

CENTRAL RECORD.

LOUIS LANDRAM.
Entered at the Post Office in Lancaster, Ky., as Second-Class Mail Matter.
Lancaster, Ky., June 3, 1904.

Down in Texas they are using automobiles in the pursuit of murderers. They do say that even this class of villains can not escape the dreaded machine.

Judge Parker, prominently mentioned as democratic candidate for president, has red hair, and judging from the many good things being said of him he will make the other candidates grey-headed.

A New York young man brought suit for damages against a girl who hugged him so hard that she broke one of his ribs. Any man unwilling to even meet death in that manner should be burned at the stake.

Senator Hale says battleships are not worth the money invested in them. Of course they are not when not needed, but they are like a pistol or a dress suit—when you want one you want it as badly as the Texan wanted the pistol.

A Buffalo newspaper says the general passenger agents of the railroads "are tired of wasting money in advertising in catch-penny publications and in some of the magazines." They show a tendency to "increase their newspaper advertising, which they can better afford to do by saving the considerable cost of using valueless publications. They realize more and more that the newspapers bring the best and earliest results."

A daily paper says J. P. Morgan is one of the few men of the country who can handle $10,000,000 in a lump without worrying about the magnitude of the responsibility. That may be all true, but we will wager that John will stand on a cold street and almost freeze while a little newsboy digs up two pennies change when the millionaire buys a paper, or will kick like a steer if the cook or washer woman asks for ten cents more on the week.

In sending us a list of members of the Kentucky Press Association, President Paul M. Moore adds the following at end of list of names:—"Those names followed with the mark (m) indicates that the editor or publisher thus distinguished is married—so far as can be determined by the compiler of this list. There are probably errors. Some may not be married. Some may have been divorced. Those who are not honored with an (m) want to be. Some ought to be and deserve to be, in this list; but as they are distant in their location, secretive in their methods, and have not published their wives pictures in their recent industrial editions, they will have to bear the resulting ignominy of not wearing the (m) brand in this compilation. Some may not mind this when they get to the Fair."

The Shelby Sentinel speaks volumes of truth when it says the jump of J. W. Courts in the Columbia building in Louisville Tuesday afternoon, calls to mind the increasing frequency of such occurrences and suggests the thought that there should be some scientific investigation of the cause, and, if possible a remedy recommended. A possible cause is the fact that many young men, in order to have any standing in society, are compelled to spend a week's income frequently for one evening's entertainment. Again, the gambling habit is growing to an alarming extent and many boys and older men, in order to keep up with their expenditures, are led to plunge on the races or speculate through the bucket shops or stock exchanges. Again, the will-power of the young manhood of America is being sapped by the tobacco habit and the weakened will of the cigarette fiend or the steady smoker attests to its ravages. Also, the constant hurry and excitement of their daily lives leaves their digestion impaired and their minds receptacles for blues and despondency. Then the lack of home training, which should make children self-reliant and able to bear up under burdens, leaves them wholly incapable of enduring pain and reverses and forgetful of the sorrow and disgrace they will bring upon their families and friends by such a cowardly course. The fault in most cases can be traced to lack of self-control, and a suggested remedy is proper training at home and in school, with a proper regard for honesty and the feelings of others, and a self-respect which would earn its bread by the sweat of its brow, together with a knowledge of God's law, which says, "The soul that sinneth, it must die."

Triumphs of Modern Surgery.

Wonderful things are done for the human body by surgery. Organs are taken out and scraped and polished and put back, or they may be removed entirely; bones are spliced; pipes take place of diseased sections of veins; antiseptic dressings are applied to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries before inflammation sets in, which causes them to heal without maturation and in one-third the time required by the old treatment. Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is an antiseptic and when applied to such injuries, causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and suffering which such injuries entail. For sale by Frisbie's Drug Store. 1m

Resolutions of Respect.
At a meeting of Camp M. D. Logan Tuesday, May 31st, 1904, the following resolutions of respect on the death of Comrade Duncan Goodloe were unanimously adopted by the Camp. Present Joseph H. Arnold, Commander, J. A. Doty, Adjutant.

On Tuesday, May 31st, we laid to rest our departed Comrade, Duncan Goodloe, aged 63 years.

A braver, better or grander soldier than he, never carried a flag or shouldered a gun. Side by side we fought with him; side by side our life blood was poured out on the battle field, and side by side we have marched with him to the tune of time through the paths of his daily life.

For a great cause a Guardian Angel, from the house of Jehovah, watched with zealous care the body of our friend, and led him gently and carefully through the ford of a raging stream of shot and shell and landed him safely on the green-sward on terra firma, out of which by the sweat of his brow he earned an honest living to the day of his decease.

Those who knew him best, loved him most. May they ever emulate the principle which he taught, and in which he so honestly and sincerely believed. Now, beloved Comrade, you are gone from our midst, and marched through the dim valley, "The Shadow of Death," and joined the great army of the Almighty; may you be one that shall carry the banner of victory and plant it on the battlements of Heaven as a signal for those you have left behind to meet you there.

As the days glide by our numbers diminish; by the death of you another strand in the Rebel Rope is broken; the tie that bound us together is as strong as ever, but the bundle is gradually decreasing; we hope that the balance of the sheaves may be gathered together by the Grim Reaper and placed with you and the rest of our comrades in the garner of the blessed Redeemer.

"Death is in the world, the Grim Destroyer of the works of the Almighty, so all that is born must die." Peace to your soul, dear Duncan, is the last sad rites and best wishes of your beloved Camp M. D. Logan.

Ordered that a copy of these resolutions be printed in The Central Record and a copy sent to his family.

Joseph H. Arnold, Commander,
A copy attested: J. A. Doty, Adjutant.
J. W. Hamilton, Secretary.

Thrown from a Horse.

Mr. George K. Babcock was thrown from his wagon and severely bruised. He applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely and says it is the best liniment he ever used. Mr. Babcock is a well-known citizen of North Plain, Conn. There is nothing equal to Pain Balm for sprains and bruises. It will effect a cure in one-third the time required by any other treatment. ### Land, Stock, Crops.

Hemp is coming up well. Oats, rye, clover and grasses are more promising.

Gardens and potato crops are late, but are now doing much better.

Early sown oats are generally improved and in promising condition throughout the general valleys and Middle Atlantic States, but in the South Atlantic and east Gulf States, where oats are now heading, the outlook is very poor.

In only two years in the history of the United States has as much as 10 per cent. of the corn crop been exported; out of the crop of 1897, 11.14 per cent. was shipped abroad, and out of the 1899 crop 10.30 per cent.

Wheat crop is looking well. Some fields are thin on the ground, but has a good stalk and has bunched out well. We are looking for a good harvest this year. Wheat is still $1 and it is thought that the new wheat will be a good price. There will be a large corn crop planted, more than has been planted for several years.

The reports respecting fruit are somewhat more encouraging, and indicate that in many sections injury from frost has been less serious than was anticipated. Peaches have, however, been extensively killed in the Ohio Valley and Middle Atlantic States. In the eastern Gulf States the outlook for peaches is very promising, especially in Georgia.

The weather has been too cool for growing crops and the past week has shown little progress in Kentucky. The dry spell has enabled corn planting to be completed except in overflow lands, and with warm showers and sunshine this crop would grow rapidly. Cut worms flourish in cool weather and complaint is general from this pest. Wheat is showing improvement and bids fair in some sections to make an average crop. Tobacco plants are backward and in demand, as the farmers are stimulated by higher prices to put out more than the average crop if plants can be had. Some fields have been set in the lower part of the State. Peaches and apples are short; small fruit promise well.

Sued by his Doctor.

"A doctor here has sued me for $12.50, which I claimed was excessive for a case of cholera morbus," says R. White, of Conchella, Cal. "At the trial he praised his medical skill and medicine. I asked him if it was not Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy he used as I had good reason to believe it was, and he would not say under oath that it was not." No doctor could use a better remedy than this in a case of cholera morbus, it never fails. Sold by Frisbie's Drug Store. 1m

Resolutions of Respect.
Fresh testimony in great quantity is constantly coming in, declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption Coughs and Colds to be unequalled. A recent expression from T. J. McFarland, Bentonville, Va., serves as example. He writes: "I had Bronchitis for three years and doctored all the time without being benefited. Then I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and a few bottles wholly cured me." Equally effective in curing all Lung and Throat troubles, Consumption, Pneumonia and Grip. Guaranteed by R. E. This is an institution that the people should assist in every way by giving their influence and money. The Man to Patronize.

The man who advertises is the wide awake business man. He seeks to please the people, procures the best of everything and sells at the lowest prices, being able to change his stock and turn over his money frequently, thus keeping the newest and best goods on hand. The man who uses advertising space not only advertises his own business, but he advertises the city in which he lives. He is public spirited and supports public movements and enterprises. He is the man for the people to go to when they have anything to buy. They will not only get the best value for their money, but will join in the upbuilding of the live, wide-awake business interests of the city.

Pigeon Race.

Somerset Journal:—Southern Express Agent Rousseau has received notice of a consignment of carrier pigeons from Buffalo, New York, from the Buffalo Pigeon Club. Instructions are given to liberate the bunch on June 15th, if atmospheric conditions are favorable, when they will rise together to considerable height and taking their bearings will strike a bee line, at the rate of about a mile a minute, for home. The distance is about 700 miles. The birds are from several of the best lofts in Buffalo and will attract considerable interest in the race, the first one in wins a handsome prize for its owner. These races are held once each week from 100 to 700 miles distant. It is a right clever thing for a little bird to do, to find the course and fly like the wind so great a distance without rest or nourishment. Next to being an angel, we would prefer to be a carrier pigeon, with a home to fly to while enjoying a birds eye view of the vast universe.

Money in Turkeys.

There can be no doubt that turkeys will bring a high price the coming year. The scarcity of breeding stock makes the outcome practically certain. With a favorable season of course, large flocks may be raised, but not enough to meet the general demand. Let us lay our plans accordingly and reap the reward which is apt to follow the recognition of opportunity, says an exchange.

HERO SAVES HERO.

Heroic Act of Young Man in Lancaster Should be Rewarded by Mr. Carnegie.

As Mr Carnegie has grown tired of giving away libraries and now offers to reward heroes, The Record will tell of the wonderful life-saving deed performed by its beloved friend, Harry Giovanelli, the accomplished newspaper man and private secretary to Commissioner Yerkes, in Washington.

As our old citizens remember, Harry worked on the Central News, The Record's predecessor, in Lancaster for several years. One summer morning, desiring to get out some job work before the usual crowd of loafers swarmed into the office, Harry arose at four o'clock, went to the News office and was soon sticking type at a two minute clip. In a few minutes a well-dressed, heavy set gentleman strolled in and quickly struck up a conversation on the weather and matters in general. Possessing the same vein of humor, they were soon firing and cross-firing jokes, Harry holding up his end of the log in his accustomed happy manner. The visitor showed signs of nervousness and restlessness that attracted the attention of the clever printer, Harry never having had that "next morning" feeling and could not understand the continued spitting of cotton and frequent rushes for the water bucket. He began to interrogate and soon learned that the visitor was out so early on that all-important mission of looking for some "hair of the dog." Harry, in his true Christian spirit, began to tell his visitor of the evils of looking upon the wine when it was red, the biting like a serpent and stinging like an adder, etc., etc. The visitor here became more impatient and told Harry very frankly that he had a hot box, that nothing would take the place of Kentucky's famous product, and that his life now depended upon about three finger lengths in a washing tub. This moved Harry to tears, and he said: "My friend, I cannot stand by and see a fellowman suffer. To relieve you in your distress I will take my life in my own hands by stealing the editor's bottle, and if you will help keep him off my poor bones, I will slake that burning thirst." This was quickly agreed to, the stranger leaving a few coppers in the shortly-before well filled pint flask. "Well," said the visitor, "I will never forget you, and if you are ever wandering out on the ocean and my warship passes, come aboard and you can have the best on the vessel." "Why," said Harry, "are you a sailor?" "Well, yes. My name is Young, Lucien Young, and I am in Lancaster on a visit to my mother. Last night, a few of Lancaster's big-hearted boys showed me the sights, and you see the result. But you have saved my life, young man, and if I can ever do anything for you, call on me. Good morning." When Harry saw he had entertained one of the highest officers in Uncle Sam's Navy, he was "beside himself" and remembering how he had jellied and joked so freely with him, at once lost his nerve and was soon shaking as badly as was the visitor when first entering the printing office. Now, as Harry saved the life of a gentleman who had won a reputation over the known world for acts of daring heroism, we believe that Mr Carnegie should go into his jeans and reward the clever gentleman who is now chief clerk and bottle washer in the office of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

SHIFTLESS

Is the term generally applied to the man who lets his fences fall into ill repair, while he whistles and whittles his time away. But there's many a well-dressed, prosperous man who is equally shiftless. He feels his health breaking down, but does nothing to repair it. His stomach is "weak." His heart and liver trouble him. He neglects his health until a total breakdown comes.

Men and women who, by self neglect, become at last victims of nervous prostration and general debility will find certain help and an almost certain cure in the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. The common cause of debility is lack of nutrition, because the stomach is diseased and the food eaten cannot be properly digested and assimilated. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, and restores physical health by enabling the perfect digestion and assimilation of food.

"I am an engineer by trade and the hard work and worry of running a large engine brought on nervous prostration," writes Mr. Chas. F. Dixon, of Arbutus, Colusa Co., Calif. "A friend recommended Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to me and I bought one bottle; thought it helped me, so continued the use of it until I had taken six bottles. I feel better than ever in my life. Am not a particle nervous, can work hard all day and sleep sound at night. I not only think so, but I know that the 'Golden Medical Discovery' cured me, and therefore I will recommend it to others."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure biliousness and sick headache.
